

KATIE LARDNER

Katie Lardner is a Mixed-Media Artist residing in Old South, London, Ontario with her husband and two kids. She has a passion for all fibre arts, including embroidery, weaving, punch needle, macrame, crochet and knitting. She is a self-taught artist and loves using different fibre art techniques to create pieces full of colour and texture. She has shown her work at Tap Centre for Creativity and the Square Foot Show at Westland Gallery. She has also been teaching art and craft workshops in the London area since 2015.

